SSYDER BROS.

The Louisa Furniture Company has just received a load of mattresses and bedbugs, and will sell them at $1.65—like ones that are being sold elsewhere in town.

METHODISTS

Hold their Conferences and Appoint Preachers for Another Year.

The West Virginia Conference of the M. E. Church South convened in Charleston, W. Va., on Wednesday of last week and adjourned on Monday morning.

It was a busy session and much important work was done. Bishop H. C. Morison presided.

The cabinet was considerably shaken up, four new presiding elders being appointed.

S. G. Preston and B. P. Fitch were expelled from the church and the ministry. Preston was not present, but his representative announced that his case would be appealed to the general conference.

The conference will meet at Parkersburg next year.

The following report was presented by the Board of Education: "The Morris Harvey College opened this year with a larger attendance and more hopeful signs than any year in its past history. The faculty has been strengthened, the building materially improved and the grounds beautified."

"The gift through our field agent of $5,000 has greatly augmented our working forces and made possible greater things for our conference college."

"In the Sandy valley greater things have come to pass than our most sanguine hopes. J. C. Mayo, of Paintsville, is ready to turn over to us a certified check for $10,000, and a deed in fee simple to 4 acres of beautiful ground worth about $1,000, for the purpose of establishing a school at that place. We heartily recommend its acceptance, also recommending that Rev. Z. Meek, M. F. Conley, J. C. Mayo, D. H. Rice, J. M. Robertson and Isaac Helmholdt shall constitute the board of trustees for the said school."

"We recommend the erection of a dormitory in Morris Harvey College, to cost not to exceed $3,000, nor less than $2,000."

"We recommend that $50,000 be raised in the next five years as an endowment fund for the Morris Harvey College."

It is said that Morris Harvey has proposed to donate $50,000 for a college if the church will locate it at Charleston, and the men of the last judgment strongly favor a compliance with this condition.

The patronage there would go a long way toward making the school a financial success, while at Barboursville this is not possible for a large institution.

Following are the appointments of interest in this part of the district:

CATLETTSBURG DISTRICT.

Rev. S. A. Donahoe, Presiding Elder.

Ashland—J. T. French.

East Ashland—Rev. P. E. Thornburg.

Catlettsburg—S. F. McClung.

Dakview—S. F. Wakefield.

Grassport—Sam Robinson.

Mill, Zion—James Pennybaker.

Trinity—L. W. Mettling.

Morrisburg—Rev. Vansant.

Louisa—Dr. J. M. Holand.

Kaysville—W. B. F. Hall.

Strassand Rev. Hutchison.

Leon—H. F. Rice.

Wayne—E. C. Switzer.

Haines—K. J. Hlevins.

Pt. Gay—H. B. Howlett.

Carter Mission—J. T. Payne.

Olliville—Liberty—D. L. Thompson.

PRESTONBURG DISTRICT.

J. H. Yank, Presiding Elder.

Freestonsburg—O. C. Hamilton.

Freestonsburg Circuit—C. C. Talbot.

Pikeville—W. F. Tyree.

Paintsville Circuit—C. E. Holby.

Laynesville—C. A. Bowles.

Elkhorn Mission—J. M. Moore.

Edon—H. H. Given.

Morris; Vanceburg, A. H. Davis; Wallington, W. R. Hunt;

Covington District—F. W. Harrop, presiding elder;

Covington, Main street, J. G. Dover; Covington, Shinkle, G. C. Mosher; Germantown, William Johns; Grant, R. T. Leslie; Louisa, D. P. Holt; Maysville, E. L. Shepard; Milldale (post-office Louisa), G. H. Frenger;

The place for holding next year's conference was not decided upon. The matter was left to a committee composed of the presiding elders of the Ashland, Lexington and Covington districts and the pastors in those cities. It is supposed that the committee will select some point in the eastern part of the State.

B. F. Thomas has moved into his new residence, R. L. Vinson has moved into the one vacated by Mr. Thomas, having purchased it some time ago.

A sea-going fish hawk was killed by a young son of John Peters, four miles above Louisa, a few days ago. It measured five and a half feet from tip to tip.

James Sipple, who was injured on the hotel at this place last week, has been removed to his home on Mill Creek, W. Va. His condition is considerably improved.

The Singer Manufacturing Company have moved their office from lower Main street to the room next to Conley's store. Mrs. Josie Rice has a position in the office.

Subscriptions to the weekly Clatsop Enquirer will be received at the Big Sandy News office at 50 cents per year until October 30th, 1902. This offer is open only to persons taking the News.

John Gartin has again taken charge of the Arlington Hotel. Two months ago he sold out to Fulkerson Bros. Mr. Gartin made a success of the business before and will do so again. In another place in this issue of the News he extends an invitation to the traveling public to stop with him.

The largest stock of winter goods ever brought to Louisa was open and must go at cut prices. All solid leather shoes, up to date clothing, calicoes, outtings, winter goods of all kinds. See our goods and the prices we quote will convince you we are the cheapest.

(D. V. Meek. (15)

UNCLAIMED LETTERS.

List of Letters remaining undelivered in this office Oct. 1, 1902:

Thomas Castle, W. H. Copley, Mr. C. G. Goudson, Mr. William Johnson, Mr. George Nernel, Mrs. S. A. Myers, Miss Gracie Roberts, Mr. Charles Spurlock, Capt. J. C. Welch, Mr. James B. Whitt.

A. M. Hughes, P. M.

The following item in the Clatsop Enquirer, from Dayton, Ky., will be of interest to Louisa readers:

"The marriage of Rev. Dr. D. P. Holt and Miss Eunice M. Hiles will take place at the residence of N. H. Hiles Tuesday, October 7. Rev. Holt was a former pastor of Tower M. E. Church, Dayton, and is now located at New Albany, Ind."

Col. J. H. Northup has placed the contract for installing a compressed air plant at Torchlight sublight to operate fifteen cutting machines in his coal mines at that place. The Sullivan machines are used. The machinery is to be delivered by the first of November and will be put into operation just as soon as possible. The mines will then be operated at full capacity.

To express their appreciation of Dr. Holand's return to this charge, the members of the M. E. Church, South, had planned to give him a hearty reception at prayer meeting Wednesday evening. They were thwarted in this, however, by disconcerting just at prayer meeting hour that there was something wrong in the gas supply, rendering it impossible to light the lecture room. This explains why the bell was not rung.

Emmett S. Ferguson, formerly of this place, but now of Pikeville, is seriously ill of typhoid fever. A telegram was received on Thursday evening of last week bringing the first news of his dangerous condition. His wife and sister Miss Grace, and father-in-law James A. Frazier left immediately for Pikeville. On Saturday R. L. Vinson and wife, Miss Kennan Ferguson and C. L. Miller left here for Pikeville. They returned Tuesday. At last reports he was somewhat improved.

Rev. F. F. Shannon will preach his last sermon for this conference year in the M. E. church, South, next Sunday morning. In fact, this will be his last sermon as pastor of the church, for he has accepted the position of editor of The Keystone State, organ of the Anti-Slavery League, published at Harrisburg, Pa., and will enter upon his new duties immediately after conference. Rev. Shannon has given the best of satisfaction as pastor of this church, and his many friends here are sorry that he is to leave us. He is a brilliant young man of fine literary ability and will be a big success as editor of The Keystone State.—Haxton Democrat.

PREMIUM LIST.

Awards Made by the Lawrence County Fair.

The fourth Lawrence County Fair was held here last Friday and Saturday, and it was away ahead of either of the other three. It was a great success and everybody who participated is very enthusiastic. It is now quite probable that a fair company will be organized to carry on the movement on a larger scale.

The exhibits were very fine and prove conclusively that industry and intelligent methods will produce anything here that can be produced anywhere in this latitude.

The State Commissioner of Agriculture failed to attend or send a representative, and this caused some disappointment.

Following is a list of the premiums awarded:

Home made bedspread, Mrs. Wm. Remmel.

Hand made embroidery, Mrs. T. D. Marcom.

Hand made lace, Miss Ora Rub.

Pumpkin, Eloise Farm.

2nd, W. D. Hoff.

Best display home-made canned fruit, not less than four varieties, Mrs. O. C. Atkins.

liberal premiums than could have been offered had it not been for their generous donations. We also desire to thank our juries, Allen Hays, for his kindness and courtesies; and many others for their kindly assistance in helping the officers to make this the most interesting and enjoyable of any of its meetings. We believe that the enthusiasm and interest manifested warrants us in saying that the Association is now an assured success, and will continue to increase in interest and usefulness until its sessions will be memorable days for all the farmers and their families in the entire county."
